ABOUT THE SOLUTION

Your solution for analysing your company's human resources, in its 5 main areas:

- Cadastre;
- Attendance;
- Remuneration;
- Training;
- Evaluation.

Identify your human needs in the different business areas of your company with our B!HR solution.

RELIABLE HR MANAGEMENT INDICATORS

B!HR allows you to analyse various management indicators in a more complete and precise way:

- Cross-referencing attendance and productivity rates;
- Cross-team analysis and production performance;
- Cost analysis versus profitability of each department.

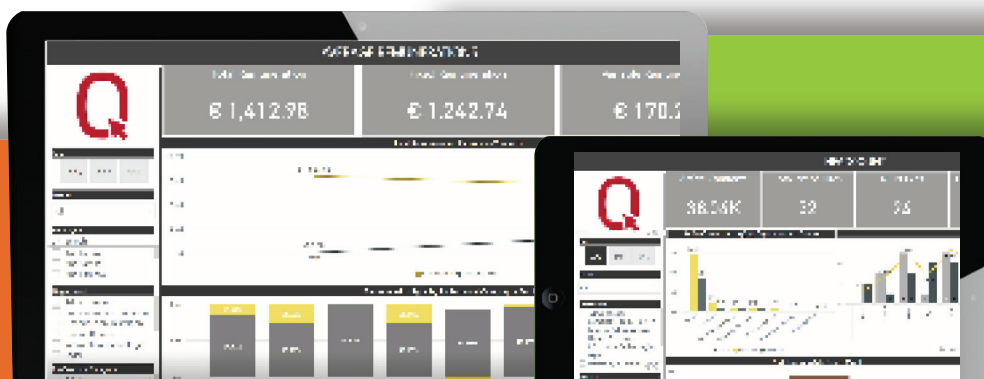

Obtain ratios that will support future changes, such as considering the reduction or expansion of resources, reinforcement in training, among other measures.

BENEFITS

- Gain a better understanding of your processes (productive, commercial, administrative and others);
- Analyse and identify the information collected during the data capture process;
- Measure the effectiveness of processes, an action, data or tool used in the company
- Track income and expenses;
- Identify losses and costs (deviations from the forecast);
- Increase profit based on the information and statistics produced;
- Plan and simulate forecasts with greater security;
- Faster analysis of information;
- Ease of reporting, dashboards and comparative statistics;
- It allows for a quick return on investment.

What the HR manager gains WITH B!HR

- More flexibility in the execution of processes;
- Decision-making based on real facts and data;
- Greater business knowledge;
- Strategic competitiveness;
- Increased efficiency in the execution of operational management reports.
